

SHOW YOUR BUSINESS SMARTS AND EARN $2,500 FOR COLLEGE TUITION!

Apply for the Beese Fulmer 'Stay Rational' Business Scholarship Contest Today!

Beese Fulmer Private Wealth Management, a leading investment firm known for its rational approach to wealth preservation and growth is thrilled to announce that Stark County high school seniors who are interested in pursuing a career in business are eligible to apply for our "Stay Rational" Business Scholarship.

HOW TO ENTER

To enter, students simply need to compose a 500- to 1,000-word essay creating a rational and compelling business case for T-Mobile, imagining the essay as a letter to CEO Mike Sievert, a GlenOak High School graduate and Canton native. The essay will need to address such business issues as how to maximize shareholder returns, make strategic capital investments, grow market share, motivate and retain employees, and grow T-Mobile's customer base.

CONTEST AWARDS

- >> One student will win a $2,500 scholarship. Two runners up will also be chosen.
- >> The scholarship winner and runners up will be announced and introduced May 5 during the Canton Regional Chamber of Commerce's annual Business Excellence Awards dinner at the Kent State University at Stark Conference Center.

CRITERIA

1. The essay will demonstrate strength in research and analysis, clear and persuasive communications and the ability to summarize business recommendations to accomplished executives.

2. Contest is open to students currently enrolled as a Stark County high school senior; submissions must include student's school.
3. 500- to 1,000-word essay written as a letter to T-Mobile CEO Mike Sievert about recommended business strategies.
4. Candidate must be a Stark County resident; submissions must include student's address, email and phone number.
5. Candidate who wins the $2,500 scholarship award must be available to attend the Canton Regional Chamber of Commerce's Business Excellence Awards on Tuesday, May 5, 2020.
